

Control Cable i-Con C to HP100A - Ersa 0IRHP100A-14

Item no. ER-0IRHP100A-14

Manufacturer Ers

EAN 4003008088991

Genuine ERS
A control cable for connecting the i-Con C soldering station to the HP100A rework heating plate. Transmits the control signals for regulated bottom-side preheating during rework. Original accessory and replacement part for the ERS
A rework system.

TECHNICAL DATA

|                        |                  |
|------------------------|------------------|
| Ausführungsklasse      | TEC              |
| Country of Manufacture | Germany          |
| ESD equipment          | ESD Lötstationen |
| Weight                 | 0.1 kg           |

DESCRIPTION

The ERS
A control cable connects the i-Con C soldering station to the HP100A rework heating plate and transmits the control signals for regulated bottom-side preheating during the rework process. It is a genuine accessory and replacement part from the ERS
A rework system.

TECHNICAL DATA

|                |                                                             |
|----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|
| Product type   | Control cable (pre-assembled)                               |
| Connection     | i-Con C to HP100A                                           |
| Application    | ERS A rework system, connection of the HP100A heating plate |
| Article number | 0IRHP100A-14                                                |
| EAN            | 4003008088991                                               |
| Manufacturer   | Ersa (Kurtz Ersa GmbH)                                      |